FOCUS 5 REPORT

An exclusive story from NewsChannel 5 Reporter Nick Beres took a hard look at how our military personnel are treated when they need help the most. An active duty soldier at Ft. Campbell talked about the stigma associated with asking for mental help to deal with the post-traumatic stress that many soldiers deal with when they return from combat. Ft. Campbell commanders tell us that help is offered and that they are trying to raise awareness of the issue. They say they have seen a dramatic drop in the number of soldier suicides in the past six months.

FOCUS 5 REPORT
4 ½ minutes

This exclusive story from NewsChannel 5 Chief Investigative Reporter Phil Williams took a hard look at some state money that seemed to have been forgotten. In the past year, the state of Tennessee has been tightening its belt and even more budget cuts are still on the way. Our investigation found hundreds of thousands of dollars the Department of Children's Services was using to pay college tuition costs and expenses for future social workers. The tuition plan called for the students to then work for DCS for two years after graduation. Our investigation found that while DCS paid the college costs, there were many students who then did not fulfill the requirement of working for DCS. We also found that DCS was doing nothing to fix this problem. After our investigation, DCS officials tell us they have sent out collection letters and, in some cases, graduates are working out payment plans.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

10/03/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Show Me The Money" - In November 2000, bank manager and single mother Michelle Renee was in her Vista, California home with her seven-year-old daughter Breea, when three masked gunmen broke into the house. The gunmen held them captive overnight, and in the morning strapped dynamite onto their backs. Breea was shoved into a closet, while Michelle was ordered to rob the bank where she worked. If she didn't comply, the gunmen said they would detonate the dynamite. She obeyed, and the next morning she cleaned out the bank vault and gave the gunmen a duffel bag containing $360,000. Police and FBI investigation soon apprehended four suspects: Christopher Butler, Lisa Ramirez, Christopher Huggins, and Robert Ortiz. But investigators were suspicious that Michelle had been involved in the robbery -- the dynamite had turned out to be fake; she had claimed that she had recognized one of the masked robbers as a customer, even though he had been in her bank only once; and she herself had filed for bankruptcy - for the second time - only a month before the robbery. However, no proof was ever discovered to confirm this suspicion. Eighteen months later, Butler and Ramirez went on trial. Ramirez's confession was ruled inadmissible because it implicated Butler, who had admitted to nothing. Finally, Ramirez was found innocent, and Butler guilty only of kidnapping Renee's daughter and roommate, Kimbra; he was not convicted of kidnapping Michelle Renee. Two months later, Huggins and Ortiz went on trial, and were found guilty of all charges, including the kidnapping of Michelle Renee. Includes interviews with Michelle Renee; Breea Renee; Loretta Myers, former co-worker with Michelle Renee; Rick Brown, neighbor of Renee; investigators Dale Martin, Rudy Zamora, Randi Demers; Tom Manning, prosecutor; Herb Weston, attorney for Ramirez. 10/17/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Untold Story of Caylee Anthony" - Until June 2008, Casey Anthony, a 22-year-old single mother, lived with her two-year-old daughter, Caylee, in the Orlando, Florida home of her parents, Cindy and George Anthony. After a reported heated argument with her mother, she then moved out, taking Caylee with her. A month later, Cindy tracked Casey down and demanded to see Caylee. Casey then said that Caylee had been kidnapped a month ago by her nanny, a woman named Zenaida Fernandez-Gonzalez. After an intensive search, investigators came to doubt the existence of this woman. In October 2008, Casey was charged with Caylee's murder: she had not reported her daughter missing for a month, and then she allegedly lied to police. In December 2008, Caylee's skeletal remains -- stuffed in plastic bags, her mouth sealed with duct tape -- were discovered a short distance from her grandparents' home. Onscreen graphics at conclusion: Casey Anthony's lawyers are requesting a change of venue for her trial. They claim Orlando is too hostile to select a fair jury. Her trial is expected to begin next summer (2010). Includes interviews with: Cindy and George Anthony, parents of Casey Anthony; Brad Conway, attorney for Cindy and George Anthony; Diane Fanning, author, "Mommy's Little Girl"; John Morgan, attorney for Zenaida Gonzalez; Jesse Grund, former boyfriend of Casey Anthony; Pam Bondi, a Tampa, Fla. prosecutor; Jose Baez, Linda Kenney Baden, and Todd Macaluso, attorneys for Casey Anthony; Zenaida Gonzalez, single mother of six; Holly Gagne, friend of Casey Anthony. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

10/24/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Curious Case of Colonel Shue" (9:00-10:00pm) - In April 2003, Air Force Colonel Philip Shue died in a violent car crash when his vehicle struck some trees alongside a Texas interstate highway. When his body was first pulled from the car, investigators found that there was a six-inch vertical gash in his chest, both his nipples had been removed, and duct tape was wrapped around both his wrists and his boots. After a year of investigation, all the agencies involved -- the Air Force, and both local and state police -- agreed that Col. Shue, a psychiatrist, had suffered a psychological breakdown and committed suicide. A grand jury, convened at the request of the district attorney, found no evidence of any crime and believed the ruling of suicide should stand. However, Tracy Shue, his widow, is adamant in her insistence that her husband had been abducted and tortured, and had then somehow broken free. Tracy thinks that Philip's first wife, Nancy, who still held insurance policies on his life worth one million dollars, should be investigated. Nancy had refused to cancel these policies, even after Philip claimed that he had received an anonymous letter warning him of a plot against his life by Nancy and her current husband, Donald Timpson. Nancy was also a board-certified sex therapist who had studied the practice of sadomasochism. Two months after Philip's death, Tracy filed a civil lawsuit seeking to prevent Nancy from collecting the million dollar death benefit, and seeking damages from the insurance companies for not previously canceling the policies. As part of the lawsuit, Tracy's lawyers demanded that Nancy answer their questions, but she took the Fifth Amendment more than twenty times, refusing to answer any questions about murder or motives or torture. In 2008, the civil lawsuit went to trial. Nancy had been dropped as a defendant, as had one of the insurance companies. Both Nancy and Tracy received million dollar death settlements of Philip Shue's policies. With regard to damages, the presiding judge ruled in favor of the insurance company. But he also ruled that the evidence considered by the Court substantiated a finding that the death of Philip Shue was indeed a homicide. Nancy Shue declined repeated requests from 48 HOURS to be interviewed. No law enforcement agency has ever named her or her husband as suspects or persons of interest in the case. Includes interviews with: Tracy Shue, widow of Philip Shue; Nina Williard, friend of Tracy and Philip; Doctor Vincent Di Maio, chief medical examiner, Bexar County, Texas; Dr. Cyril Wecht, pathologist; Joe Moura, private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Lieutenant Roger Anderson, lead officer for the military's investigation of the case; George Brown, friend of Philip Shue. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Peter Henderson) (OAD: 04/18/09). Onscreen graphic update for this first rebroadcast: In June 2009 the Texas Attorney General ruled Col. Philip Shue's death certificate does not have to be changed. The official cause of death remains suicide.

10/24/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Haunted" (10:00-11:00pm) - In July 2002, Mike Sisco and his fiancée Karen Harkness were shot to death in Karen's Topeka, Kansas home. Police investigation ultimately focused on Dana Chandler, Mike's ex-wife and the mother of his two children. Mike and Dana had gone through a bitter divorce in 1998, and Mike had custody of the children. Dana left Kansas, but she then established an ongoing pattern of harassing and stalking her ex-husband, and also harassing Karen on the phone. Dana's obsession convinced family members that she was involved in the murders, but no hard evidence has ever linked her to the crimes. The families believe that evidence that might have implicated her was lost or destroyed in the initial police investigation of the crime scene. So, although police strongly suspected Dana's involvement in the murders, she was never arrested or charged. In 2007, an independent analysis of the evidence, done by retired New York Lieutenant Commander Vernon Geberth, concluded that Dana Chandler was "the one and only person who had the motive, means, and opportunity to commit these murders". In January 2009, Topeka got a new district attorney, Chad Taylor, who says that the Harkness-Sisco case is now a priority. Onscreen graphics at conclusion: Hailey Sisco has been granted a permanent restraining order against her mother. District Attorney Chad Taylor is awaiting the results of new DNA testing. The investigation remains active. Includes interviews with: Harold Worswick, father of Karen Harkness; Carol Sisco Engler, mother of Mike Sisco; Richard Volle, detective, Topeka police; Dustin Sisco, son of Mike Sisco and Dana Chandler; Hailey Sisco, daughter of Mike Sisco and Dana Chandler; Erin Sutton, daughter of Karen Harkness; Chad Harkness, son of Karen Harkness; Cathy and Mark Boots, Mike Sisco's sister and his brother-in-law; Joseph Moura and Paul Ciolino, private detectives working for 48 HOURS; Tim Sisco, Mike's brother; Mike Worswick, Karen Harkness' brother; Chad Taylor, Topeka district attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

10/31/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Deadly Prophecy" - Faylene Eaves, divorced Arizona mother of two, married Doug Grant, a divorced single dad, in 1993. They were both Mormons. Faylene was especially devout, according to Doug's sister, Tammy Fuentes, who also says that, several years later, Faylene told her of receiving a message from God telling her that Doug had a girlfriend and that she should divorce him. Doug acquiesced. He then planned to marry Hilary Dewitt, but in August 2001, Faylene wanted to re-marry him, citing a revelation from God that she should put her family back together. They did re-marry, and to celebrate their reunion, vacationed in the Timpanogas National Park in Utah. There, according to Doug, Faylene thought she had a vision of Jesus in the clouds and fell off a cliff while trying to get a better look. She survived, but three days later was found drowned in her bathtub, her blood full of the muscle relaxants and sleeping medication (Ambien) that had been prescribed after her fall. As a precaution against Faylene taking both drugs together, the physician's assistant had told Doug not to fill the Ambien prescription without calling him first -- but Doug had done so anyway. In the journal that Faylene had kept, she seemed to suggest that it was God's will that she die "to fulfill a mission on the other side of the veil." And, in letters to Hilary Dewitt, Faylene had written that she wanted Hilary to marry Doug after she died -- which he did, just weeks after Faylene's death. Although Faylene's death was initially ruled an accident, pressure from her family made the police eventually take a closer look at Doug Grant. He had never called 911 upon discovering Faylene in the tub. Because of this, and because of incriminating information provided by Jim McElyea, an old friend of Doug, police arrested Doug in the summer of 2005 for the murder of his wife, Faylene. In mid-November 2008, his trial began; in March 2009, he was convicted of manslaughter. Concluding onscreen graphics: Jenna is suing Doug Grant for the wrongful death of her mother. Faylene and Doug's two sons live with Hilary Dewitt, who is their legal guardian. Includes interviews with: Jenna Stradling, daughter of the late Faylene Grant; Doug Grant, widower of Faylene Grant; Chad White, physician's assistant, friend of Doug Grant; Paul Rubin, reporter; Juan Martinez, prosecutor; Hilary Dewitt, second wife of Doug Grant; Mel McDonald, attorney for Doug Grant; Tammy Fuentes, sister of Doug Grant; Sy Ray, detective; Jim McElyea, friend of Doug Grant. As President Obama and Congress address health care reform, these costs, which used to be a bipartisan issue, have become politically explosive, a perfect example of the health care costs that threaten to bankrupt the country. Included interviews with Dr. Ira Byock, Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, Lebanon, NH; Dr. Elliott Fisher, Dartmouth Institute for Health Policy; Meredith Snedeker, daughter of a patient; and David Walker of the Peter G. Peterson Foundation. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andy Court)

The jewelry industry banned the trafficking of so-called blood diamonds, but the same has not happened with gold, and a campaign of rape and murder, funded largely by gold, has killed more than 5 million people, as gold is smuggled out to be sold on the open market. Included are interviews with Anneke Van Woudenberg, Human Rights Watch; John Prendergast, the Enough Project; Fidel Balilemba, relief worker; Matt Runci, head of the trade groups Jewelers of America and the Responsible Jewelry Council. Today, he sails the seas on the Nautilus, a ship specially designed for deep sea exploration, and with state-of-the-art electronics and navigation systems. Though famed for his discovery of the Titanic, he reveals that he was really on a top-secret mission for the U.S. Navy to map two nuclear submarines, the USS Scorpion and Thresher, lost in the North Atlantic during the Cold War. He also considers his discovery of tube worms, eight thousand feet below the ocean's surface, living in total darkness and thriving off the energy of the Earth and not the sun, to be his greatest discovery. Also included is undersea footage from Ballard's personal library. (C: Lara Logan - P: Max McClellan) DOUBLE-LENGTH SEGMENT

11/07/09 PREEMPTION

11/14/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "A Case For Murder" - On June 2, 2007, the body of thirty-six-year-old Hugues de la Plaza was found in his locked San Francisco apartment. He had been stabbed in the neck, chest and stomach. His apartment was covered in blood, and the scene seemed to have all the characteristics of a homicide -- but there was no sign of a struggle, no sign of anyone else's DNA at the scene, and no image of an assailant on nearby security cameras. The San Francisco Medical Examiner's office classified the cause of his death as "undetermined," which raised the possibility of suicide. However, there was no bloody weapon found in his apartment. Friends and family claim that he was not suicidal and would never have killed himself. De la Plaza's father, Francois, a French citizen, hired an independent private investigator, John Murphy, and was also able to call in French authorities to conduct their own investigation. Murphy and the French investigators independently concluded that Hugues de la Plaza was a homicide victim. In addition, an outside review of the case, commissioned by the San Francisco Police Department, concluded that de la Plaza's death was a homicide. Despite these several independent findings, San Francisco authorities still classify the cause of de la Plaza's death as "undetermined." Includes interviews with: Melissa Nix, former girlfriend of de la Plaza; Dr. Venus Azar, Assistant Medical Examiner; Neil Zarama, co-worker of de la Plaza; Mark Colacito, boss and friend of de la Plaza; Francois de la Plaza, father of Hugues; Shannon Stabile and Kris Moore, paramedics; Antonio Casillas, Inspector, San Francisco Police; Orion Denley and Gitanjali Bhusan, neighbors of de la Plaza; John Murphy, private investigator; Christophe Schuhmann, friend of de la Plaza. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Josh Gelman, Doug Longhini, Shoshanah Wolfson)

11/21/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Catch Her If You Can" (9:00-10:00pm) - A profile of Esther Elizabeth Reed -- also known as Natalie Fisher, Natalie Bowman, Brook Henson and Jennifer Myers. Since 1999, this high school dropout from a small Montana town assumed at least four different identities; scammed her way into Harvard and Columbia, and stole over $100,000 in student loans. In 2006, a federal grand jury in South Carolina handed down an indictment charging her with felony identity theft (in relation to missing person Brook Henson) and student loan fraud. In February 2008, she was finally arrested in a Chicago suburb. She pled guilty to four felonies, and was sentenced to fifty-one months in federal prison. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

11/21/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Diary of a Showgirl" (10:00-11:00pm) - Marjorie Orbin, a former Las Vegas showgirl and stripper, is currently serving a life sentence in a Phoenix, Arizona prison, having been convicted of murdering Jay Orbin, her husband of ten years and father of her son, Noah. On September 8, 2004, Jay was driving home from a business trip to Florida. He spoke to his mother on his cell phone, but then was never heard from again. Six weeks later, on October 23, 2004, his torso was found in a plastic container, just miles from his home. A police search warrant of the Orbin home discovered Jay's credit cards and business checkbook, which he always took with him on business trips -- evidence that he had arrived home, but never actually left on another trip -- as Marjorie had claimed. Further police investigation -- including the discovery of a hardware store surveillance tape showing Marjorie buying two plastic containers exactly like the one Jay's torso was found in -- pointed to Marjorie as the murderer, and she was arrested and charged on December 6, 2004. On September 14, 2009, a jury found her guilty of murder; she was sentenced to life in prison. Marjorie, however, now claims that Larry Weisberg, with whom she had been having an affair, murdered Jay when Weisberg and Jay had a confrontation in Jay's home, after Jay had returned earlier than expected from his Florida trip and found out about the affair. She says that she had never revealed this for five years, because Weisberg had threatened to kill her son if she went to the police. Marjorie is serving a life sentence in Phoenix, Arizona. Includes interviews with: Marjorie Orbin; David Barnes, detective; Treena Kay, lead prosecutor; Joanne Orbin, Jay's mother; Jake Orbin, Jay's brother; Jan Butcher, detective. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

12/05/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Justice in the Heartland" (9:00-10:00pm) - On May 20, 2005, 27-year-old Mike Golub, resident of Johnson City, Kansas, left work to pick up his young son, Mikey, at the home of Shannon Albers Floyd, Mike's ex-girlfriend and the mother of their son, Mikey. Shannon was now married to Chad Floyd, a member of a rich and powerful Johnson City family. But Mike disappeared after he left work, and was never seen again. His family immediately became suspicious that Shannon and Chad Floyd were responsible: Mike had wanted more time with his son, and he and the Floyds were at odds over this. In addition, the Floyds, who wanted to move out of Kansas, had been told that, if they left the state, Shannon would probably lose custody of Mikey to his father. Five days after his disappearance, Mike's truck was found in a remote field, but with no evidence of foul play. Police investigation of the Floyd's home revealed small amounts of blood and Mike Golub's DNA on the unpainted underside of their newly repainted front deck. Other circumstantial evidence also made police suspicious of the Floyds. In 2006, Shannon and Chad Floyd were arrested and charged with Mike's murder; Chad's father posted their $2 million bond bail. In 2007, they were tried -- but the jury declared itself deadlocked after two days of deliberations. Prosecutors re-filed the charges, and in April 2008, there was a second trial -- and, once again, the jury declared itself deadlocked, after two days of deliberations. Prosecutors ultimately decided against a third trial, fearing another hung jury. The Floyds went free, and Mike Golub is officially still missing. Includes interviews with: Deb Golub, Mike's mother; Crissy Golub, Mike's sister; Danae Meurer, friend of Mike Golub; Shannon and Steve Morris, friends of Mike Golub; Mary Hart, business owner in Johnson City; Sally Ochoa, child custody worker, Kansas; Joseph Moura, detective, 48 HOURS consultant; Paul Ciolino, detective, 48 HOURS consultant. On December 4, 2009, an Italian jury -- after an eleven-month trial -- found American exchange student Amanda Knox and her former Italian boyfriend, Raffaele Sollecito, guilty of the November 2007 murder in Perugia of Amanda's British roommate, Meredith Kercher. This follow-up includes taped excerpts of the actual trial, and commentary by: Edda Mellas and Curt Knox, Amanda's parents; Deanna Knox, Amanda's sister; John Kercher Jr. and Stephanie Kercher, parents of Meredith; Nick Pisa, British journalist; Paul Ciolino, Chicago private investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Paolo Sofriso, Italian investigator and 48 HOURS consultant; Nathan Abraham, friend of Meredith Kercher; Dr. Larry Kobilinsky, forensic scientist; Doug Preston, author; Senator Maria Cantwell (D-WA). - 12/12/09 48 HOURS SPECIAL INVESTIGATION: "The Lost Children" - An investigation into one of the largest foreign adoption scams in U.S. history. In 1994, Scott and Karen Banks started the Utah-based Focus on Children adoption agency, and over time placed children from nine different countries into American homes. Since 1999, American parents had adopted more than a hundred children from the agency's then-recently opened program in Samoa, the small island nation in the South Pacific. These Americans included Patti Sawyer, a divorced, single mother; Mike and Kari Nyberg; and Gary and Elizabeth Muenzler. All had been told that the children were orphans, living at the agency's orphanage in Samoa, after being abandoned by their biological parents. The Nybergs, however, were bothered by their child's strong memories of her Samoan family, and sent a Samoan friend to visit Elleia's parents and ask them a few questions. They found out that the poor, uneducated Samoan parents thought that they were signing their children up for an international educational foster program, in which they would be able to stay in close touch with their children, who would then be returned at the age of 18. The Nybergs contacted U.S. Immigration in early 2005; eventually, the Samoan government halted all adoptions and the U.S. government began investigating. The Nybergs ultimately returned Elleia to her Samoan parents. In February 2007, Scott and Karen Banks, and five FOC employees, including Dan Wakefield, the agency's child recruiter in Samoa, were charged with 135 felony counts, including visa fraud, money laundering, and bringing illegal aliens into the U.S. in connection with thirty-seven adoptions. Meanwhile, Patti Sawyer brought Jayden back to Samoa to visit her birth parents; Jayden then chose to return to the U.S. with Sawyer. Eventually, federal prosecutors allowed the FOC defendants to plead down the 135 federal charges to a handful of misdemeanors. They were banned from the adoption business for life, and they received no jail time. For now, it appears that nearly all of the Samoan parents want their children to remain with their American families. The exception is Vili Alofa, biological father of adoptee Christine Muenzler: he wants his daughter back. Includes interviews with: Mike and Kari Nyberg, adoptive parents of Elleia; Elizabeth and Gary Muenzler, adoptive parents of Christine; Patti Sawyer, adoptive mother of Jayden; Jayden Sawyer, adoptee; Mele and Upega, biological parents of adoptee Jayden Sawyer; Isaia and Tupu, biological parents of adoptee Elleia Nyberg; Vili Alofa, biological father of adoptee Christine Muenzler; Barbara Dreaver, New Zealand reporter; Dan Wakefield, employee of the adoption agency, Focus On Children; Brett Tolman, U.S. Attorney. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Katherine Davis, Doug Longhini)
- 12/19/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "The Birthday Party" - On January 21, 1998, the night before his 38th birthday, federal prosecutor Stanley Alpert was walking home late at night in lower Manhattan, when he was kidnapped at gunpoint and held hostage for 25 hours before his captors, having learned that he was a federal prosecutor, decided to release him. Before learning that fact, however, his kidnapers had intended to force him to withdraw $50,000 from his bank account, and had threatened Alpert's own life and that of his father, if Alpert did not cooperate. After his release, police were able, with Alpert's help, to track down his abductors. The kidnapers (identified only as Lucky, Ren, Sen and Louis) received sentences ranging from 15 years to life. Stanley Alpert has written a book about his ordeal. It's called "The Birthday Party". Includes interviews with: Stanley Alpert, federal prosecutor, kidnapping victim; David Prager, friend of Alpert; Dan Dorsky, friend of Alpert; FBI special agents Kathleen Flynn, Richard Meade, David Burroughs, David Biddiscombe; Bill Glynn, NYPD detective. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

12/26/09 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Drawn To Murder" (9:00-11:00p) - a report on the February 1987 murder of 37-year-old Peggy Hettrick in Fort Collins, Colorado. Her mutilated, half naked body was discovered in a field near the home of Tim Masters, a 15-year-old who lived near the crime scene. He said he had seen the body on his way to school but, thinking it was a mannequin, he did not report it to the police. He then became a suspect when police searched his home and found his collection of knives and his drawings of graphic images of murder and mutilation. Under interrogation, he adamantly denied any knowledge of the murder -- and since police had no actual evidence linking him to the crime, he was not arrested. Ten years later, prompted by the opinions of Dr. Reid Meloy, an expert on sexual homicide, the police did arrest Masters for the murder. He was put on trial, convicted and went to prison in 1999, sentenced to life without parole. After losing two appeals, he appealed again, claiming ineffective counsel. His defense team then uncovered important items of evidence never given to Masters' original lawyers, although they had been entitled to them. This included, among other things, questions surrounding Dr. Richard Hammond, a prominent eye surgeon who also lived near the crime scene and who had been arrested for voyeurism. And now, for the first time, DNA tests were done on Peggy Hettrick's clothing. These tests found no DNA of Tim Masters, but did find that of Hettrick's ex-boyfriend, Matt Zoellner, and that of two other males. Tim Masters' conviction and sentence were vacated, and he was released from prison after more than nine years. Updated concluding text graphic for this 12/26/09 rebroadcast: Tim Masters is suing Jim Broderick, the city of Fort Collins and four prosecutors involved in his case. Star prosecution witness Reid Meloy says authorities withheld crucial information from him and he now plans to testify for Tim Masters in the lawsuit. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Joshua Yager, Marc B. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIALS

- 12/24/09 "The Art of 'The Book'" - a report on art and the Bible, analyzing the relationship between Biblical stories, rituals and the art they inspire. For centuries, religions have looked to art as a way to educate and entertain believers -- everything from paintings and sculptures of biblical figures to houses of worship and illustrated texts. The program also provides an opportunity to see rarely-viewed manuscripts and objects. 1) Bill Voelkle, Curator of the Department of Medieval and Renaissance Manuscripts at the Morgan Library and Museum in New York City, discusses the expansive collection of over 1,400 illuminated manuscripts that were collected by the financier Pierpont Morgan. Maria Fredericks, Dru Heinz Book Conservator at the Morgan Library, discusses the main mission of the conservation center, as well as some of the scientific techniques used to enhance what is seen with the naked eye. 2) Dr. David Kraemer, Director of Library, Jewish Theological Seminary (JTS) in New York City, explains how Jewish culture used biblical imagery for centuries and why its art is rarer than its Christian counterparts, as it is seen as a religion which opposes iconic representation. JTS'S Curator of Jewish Art, Sharon Liberman Mintz, presents the Rothschild Mahzor, a 500-year-old prayer book, and the Prato Haggadah. 3) At the Museum of Biblical Art in Manhattan (MoBia), the only museum in the United States dedicated solely to biblical art, Executive Director Ena Heller explains the importance of those images to those who could not read or write. And Tobi Kahn, a contemporary abstract sculptor and painter who thinks about Jewish ritual, discusses his work and current exhibit at MoBia, through January 24, 2010. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. comfortable home as well as a loving environment for her daughter, Wimzie, while she is off on her somewhat unorthodox work schedule flying around the world. It is within this setting that we meet Jonas, Archibald, Loulou, Horace, and Azuline as they work out the relationships that grow out of being together every day, of growing up just a little bit every day. They learn not only about themselves but also about the world outside the door: music, nature, art and fun are woven with a touch of humor throughout a storyline solidly crafted on socio-affective objectives. Music, songs, the art of discovery. Rhymes, magic, the sharing of secrets with friends. Story time, word games, and the acceptance of "your" way. This is what Wimzie brings into the viewers' home. Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming

Come spend a day in the life with the monsters at Wimzie's house and you will never want to go home. It is the magical kind of daycare that leads to delightful adventures for the pre-school child. All of the characters are wild and wooly on the outside - but definitely human on the inside. Five year old Wimzie and her mother Graziella, an airline pilot, live in Yayas house as does Rousso, Yayas best friend. Graziella is more than ecstatic to have found a warm and comfortable home as well as a loving environment for her daughter, Wimzie, while she is off on her somewhat unorthodox work schedule flying around the world. It is within this setting that we meet Jonas, Archibald, Loulou, Horace, and Azuline as they work out the relationships that grow out of being together every day, of growing up just a little bit every day. They learn not only about themselves but also about the world outside the door: music, nature, art and fun are woven with a touch of humor throughout a storyline solidly crafted on socio-affective objectives. Music, songs, the art of discovery. Rhymes, magic, the sharing of secrets with friends. Story time, word games, and the acceptance of "your" way. This is what Wimzie brings into the viewers' home. This program is specifically designed to further the educational and informational needs of children, has educating and informing children as a significant purpose, and otherwise meets the definition of Core Programming as specified in the Commission's rules.

| Describe the educational and informational objective of the program and how it meets the definition of Core Programming | | |
| This exciting series thrusts the viewer into the dramatic fray of the War of Independence, as seen through the eyes of two kids who have been taken in and given jobs as roving reporters by the Renaissance man of the Revolution, Ben Franklin. British teen Sarah sees both sides of the war and does not like either, while American teen Gregory is a passionate defender of freedom and liberty. French orphan Henri, who is also taken in by Ben, may be younger than his new 'big brother' and 'big sister', but he often sees most clearly.
